of the St. Clair Guard

Organized
July 4th 1844.

Constitution of the St. Clair Guards

Article 1. This company shall be styled the St. Clair Guards.

" 2. The officers of this company shall be one Captain, two Lieutenants, four Sergeants, four Corporals, one Cornet and one Pioneer.

" 3. The commissioned officers shall be elected in such manner as may be prescribed by the Militia Law of this commonwealth. The non-commissioned officers shall be elected in the same manner and for the same time as the commissioned officers.

" 4. The Captain shall have power to call special meetings of the company to transact any important business of which due notice shall be given by the Orderly Sergeant.
He shall see that each member procure the proper uniform hereafter described. He shall make all necessary arrangements for the entertainment of the company at its meetings. He shall have the oversight of all the miscellaneous business not otherwise specified in this constitution; And shall submit to the company all necessary information.

Article 5. The first sergeant shall be the Orderly. It shall be his duty to give to the members of the company due notice of its meetings (when necessary.)

6. Stated meetings of the company shall be held in uniform on such days as the Militia-law may require, and on such other days as a majority of the members of the company may appoint.

7. At all meetings in uniform whether required by law or appointed by the company the roll shall be called fifteen minutes at least after the appointed hour power of receiving excuses and remitting fines for non attendance.

A majority of the members present at any meeting shall be competent to transact any business relating to the internal police of the company when not in actual service. When in service or on parade the company shall be governed by the Militia law.

Article 8. Any citizen of this commonwealth desirous of admission into this company may be received by a majority of the members present on any day of parade voting in favour of his admission.

9. Nonattendance at four success meetings without sufficient cause shall with the consent of the members present forfeit the right of membership.

Article 10. Disobedience of orders insubordination or other improper conduct on parade shall be immediately checked and punished by the commanding officer by dismissal from parade. And the member so offending or guilty of any improper or unsoldierly conduct while in uniform on the day of any meeting of the company shall ~~be given him~~ at the next meeting (of which due notice shall be given him) be reprimanded, fined, or expelled at the discretion of the members present.

" 11. Any member appearing on parade not in full uniform shall be fined as an absentee.

" 12. Each member shall provide himself with complete uniform as herein described within six months after joining said company

Art. 13.

The uniform shall consist of a cap made of harsnet covered with blue cloth a double cord and tassel and a small eagle in front according to pattern. A white wisted plume with red top.

Tenting on the old camp ground

1 We're tenting to night on the old camp ground

Singing a song is cheer

Our weary hearts a song of home And friends we love so dear

Chorus

Many are the hearts that are weary to-night wishing for the war to cease Many are the hearts looking for the right to see the dawn of peace

Tenting to-night; tenting to-night

Tenting on the old camp ground

2 We ~~have~~ been tenting to-night on the old camp ground thinking of the days go-by: of the loved ones at home that gave us the hand and the kiss that said Good bye

3 We are tired of war on the old camp-ground Many are the dead and gone of the brave and true who've left their homes others have been wounded long.

4 We've been fighting to-day on the old camp-ground many are lying near Some are dead and some are dying - many are the tears

Oath of Members of Court of Appeal You do swear by Almighty God the searcher of all hearts that as a member of the Court of appeal held for the St. Clair Guards you will act according to the best of your judgement with fidelity and impartiality and that as you shall answer to God at the Great Day camp-ground. Thinking of the days go by: of the loved ones at home that gave us the hand and the heart that said Good bye 3 we are tired of war on the old camp-ground

Many are the dead and gone of the brave and
